If you would like to book me for sessions at your school, please give me a call. For schools outside Metro Vancouver or the Fraser Valley, but within five hours driving time, I am happy to do tours of at least four readings/workshops over two days.

If the Parent Advisory Council at your school would like to use my reading as a fund-raising opportunity, I will be happy to offer a $3 return on every copy of my latest book, Einstein Dog, that is sold through the school. An order form is printed on the reverse page.

Nominated for the BC Book Prize in Children’s Literature
